

Community Engagement Mini Grant Application

I. Overview

In the face of hate and bias, the County of Santa Clara's Division of Equity and Social Justice (DESJ) is offering Community Engagement Mini Grants ("Mini Grant") for community members and groups for community-led activities that empower vulnerable, marginalized communities and address the concerning rise of hate incidents and acts in Santa Clara County and build a hate-free community for all.

These mini grants are intended for community members and groups, including but not limited to, grass root organizations, community activists, neighborhood groups, and community-based organizations. As such, the County is seeking proposals for activities/projects that will promote cross-cultural understanding, relationship building activities among community members, learning about allyship to support those affected by hate and bias, outreach to young developing minds, sharing and celebrating the history of marginalized communities, and educating/training the community about resources and services that address the concerning rise of hate incidents and acts in Santa Clara County.

Grant Award

Mini Grant awards will range from $200 - $2,500.

Application Timeframe

Mini Grant applications are accepted on a first come, first served basis from August 30, 2021 – June 30, 2022 OR until grants are exhausted, whichever comes first.
